Mr. Redley aka Louis Redley is a DJ and promoter from North London. Originally cutting his teeth DJing up in Manchester, the Londoner moved back to the capital to get a job in music - kicking off his radio show Café Au Lait at the same time in 2015.

Mr. Redley is a purveyor of Black Electronic music, with both his radio show and his DJ sets melding the eclectic rhythms of the UK's electronic dance scene with the deep and soulful history of America's House and industrial Techno Movements.

Outside of DJing, Louis works as label supervisor and promoter for Funkineven/Steven Julien's Apron Records, running their parties across the capital, Europe and the rest of the world. In addition to this, he also works as an assistant producer at BBC 6 Music with the likes of Gilles Peterson, Mary Ann Hobbs and Tom Ravenscroft.

Mr. Redley presents his Café Au Lait show on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday of the month on Rerezent Radio, and is seen as their electronic new music specialist.
